Homeowner Association Board Members and Volunteers

You serve on your association board to protect your investment while enhancing your community. Joining CAI is your single best resource in making the most out of your community service.

YOUR MEMBERSHIP MEANS:

► You can attend local board member educational sessions for free. Learn from industry experts and meet other community leaders in seminars directly geared for Orange County board members.

► You get the Orange County Membership Directory with information on service providers that understand community associations and the challenges that they face.

► You get an annual subscription to both the OC View and Common Ground. The chapter and national bimonthly magazine publications filled with information, ideas and perspective you can't get anywhere else.

► You are automatically enrolled in CAI's Center for Community Association Volunteers (CCAV), a specialized member group committed to giving you the information, tools and resources you need.

► You get Minutes, a bimonthly enewsletter written exclusively for board members and other community leaders.

► You get the Board Member Tool Kit. A "how-to" kit filled with tools, knowledge and information that help you do a better job and make it easy to serve in your role as a community association leader.

► You have an advocate that works for better community governance at the local, state and federal level.

► You have access to free and discounted webinars - regular online learning opportunities you can experience in the convenience and comfort of your home or office.

► You have around the clock access to CAI's information-rich website, including an extensive research library, governance tools, message boards, sample forms and templates, vendor directories and much more.

CAI provides information and support to help you save time and money, be an effective leader to achieve the results you need and the respect you deserve. Our-vision your-vision is a community that becomes a better place to call home.
